

Fishing - Index to Chapters

1. Index to Chapters
2. A Note - 1998
3. Historical Facts
4. Early Period of Herring Fishing 17th and 18th Century
5. Herring Fishing in Scotland
6. Herring Fishing
7. Crofter Fishermen
8. The Lifestyle of Yesteryear's Fishermen
9. Fishermen's Dress
10. The Herring Girls
11. Small Open Boat Inshore Fishing in the Rural Villages
12. Development of Wick Harbour
13. End of Kelping Coincided With Caithness Fishing
14. The Premature Death of Three Cromore Fishing Girls at Wick
15. Development of Stornoway Harbour Facilities
16. The Development of the Town of Stornoway
17. Curing the Herring
18. Improvement in Fishing Boat Design
19. First Public Provision To Provide Financial Assistance For Boats and Gear
20. Buoys or Floats
21. Barking and Drying Nets
22. Drift Nets
23. Loom Invented to Weave Cotton Nets
24. Ring Net Herring Fishing
25. The Concept of the Spring or Lead Rope
26. The Coronation Sail Fishing Boat Race of 1902
27. Discovery of New Scotch Cure
28. Transition From Sail To Motor
29. Fifie Boats
30. Fishing Boats in Calbost and Marvig in 1930s
31. Prices and Catches in the Hungry 1920s and 1930s
32. Herring Cadging
33. Fish Saving
34. Post Second World War Period
35. The Last Gill-Net Herring Fishing Boats in Lewis and Harris
36. The New Outer Isles Fishery Training Scheme 1960-1965
37. First Fisheries Development Scheme 1966-1971
38. Second 5-Year Period of Fisheries Development Scheme 1973-1977
39. Herring Spawning Grounds